Subject: Black Friday...
Date: Thu, 23 Feb 2006 16:51:00 -0500

Looks like the ball's in our court. I'm heading to a short bar association meeting and then heading home, where I'll draft the Black Friday 'statement' and send it to you guys for final review and comment, before I send it off to Victor :)

Is anyone NOT having fun yet?

Victor's response...

OK, 10-4. Sorry I didn't respond sooner, but I stepped out to have lunch with a teacher friend of mine.

If and when the official program goes into effect with legitimate, mainstream news media sources and "focus groups," I hope that I will be one of the focus groups selected -- with my highly influential "UFO Thread List" -- in light of all that I have done -- and endured -- and my strong language arts and editing skills.

POINT: Look at the worldwide phenomenon I sparked with my small "UFO Thread List."

FINAL QUESTION: Were ALL of the POSTINGS -- #1 - #15 -- FAKES?

I will await your final post for "Black Friday" which you should get to me TODAY, Feb 23....

Burgers are still on me! -
